

Leadership Conference

12 November 2010 - Sydney

Semann & Slattery

MACQUARIE
UNIVERSITY

Creating New Frontiers in Leadership

Semann & Slattery and the Institute of Early Childhood Macquarie University are pleased to announce Australia's first leadership in early childhood conference. Bringing together international and national speakers 'Creating New Frontiers in Leadership' will provide a unique opportunity for debate and dialogue regarding leadership.

The innovative line up of speakers come from a range of disciplines including cultural studies, management, feminist studies, education and psychology. Leading thinkers in leadership will address issues including:

- gender and leadership
- deconstructing leadership
- power and leadership
- positive organisational scholarship and leadership
- culture and leadership
